KEITH PARKS

Commander

Commander Keith Parks, a member of the Department for 30 years, manages the Court Services Bureau. The almost 70 employees of this important bureau serve as bailiffs in our courts, provide security to the movement of inmates between the jail and the court rooms, as well as run the Hall of Justice holding facility, the Sheriff's civil operations and the transportation detail. The Superior Court of California's facilities served by this bureau include the Ventura County Courthouse at the Government Center in Ventura, the Juvenile Justice Center in El Rio and the East County Courthouse in Simi Valley.

Keith received his AA Degree in the Administration of Justice from Moorpark College and a BA Degree from California Lutheran University. He also has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the California State University, Northridge. He is also 7-year member of the Thousand Oaks Rotary Club and has served a term on the Board of Directors.
