

CRAIG HUSBAND
UNDERSHERIFF
VENTURA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Undersheriff Craig Husband is a 27-year veteran of the Ventura County Sheriff's Department, graduating from the Sheriff's Training Academy in 1977. Undersheriff Husband has acquired a broad range of law enforcement experience throughout his assignments in custody, patrol, personnel, narcotics, and crime prevention. His assignments have included command of the Sheriff's Training Academy, Major Crimes, and Narcotics Bureaus.

In January of 1997, he was appointed to the position of Chief of Police for the City of Camarillo. During his tenure with the City of Camarillo, he continually sought innovative ways to implement the Department's commitment to community policing. National Night Out, Neighborhood Watch, Stranger Danger, Mobile Police Storefronts, Kidprint, Citizen Patrol, foot patrol, bike patrol, horse patrol, the Citizen Academy, and tactical crime analysis are but a few of the community programs that he helped develop, implement, or expand.

Undersheriff Husband serves as a volunteer on numerous boards which include the Camarillo Healthcare District, Camarillo Breakfast Rotary, and the Camarillo Boys and Girls Club.

He was selected as the 1999 Public Servant of the Year by the City of Camarillo Chamber of Commerce. He is the recipient of the Tri-Counties Narcotics Officer of the Year and the State of California (region 6) Narcotics Officer of the Year. He is also a recipient of the Medal of Merit for bravery and is a lifetime member of the Professional Baseball Players Association. His hobbies include the study and teaching of several systems of martial arts. He holds a sixth degree black belt and is considered one of the foremost authorities of that discipline in the world. He and his wife, Cecilia, reside in the City of Camarillo.
